

Come One! Come All!

Self-Determination and Self-Advocacy is for everyone!

If you have a disability and want to get more control of your life, your supports, your services, and the people in your life –

Join

MICHIGAN PARTNERS for FREEDOM
on September 23, 2011

At this day long workshop, we will share:

- ⇒ What self-determination and self-advocacy can mean for your future
- ⇒ What tools you need
- ⇒ Effective strategies for successful self-advocacy
- ⇒ How you can help make Self-Determination a reality for all citizens of Michigan
- ⇒ Steps for building Self-Determination and Self-Advocacy in the Upper Peninsula

Date: Sept. 23, 2011

Location: Bay
Community College
Joseph Heirman Room
2001 N. Lincoln Road
Escanaba, MI 49829

Time: 9:30am - 4pm

Registration begins at 9am.

Light morning refreshments and lunch will be provided by the Delta County
Regional Interagency
Consumer Committee.

This workshop is FREE, but registration is required!

REGISTRATION FORM:

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Accommodation/Dietary Needs: _____

Call to Register or Return Registration Form by September 9, 2011 to:

Sarah Peura

Toll-free Phone: 1-800-379-7245

Email: sarah@upsail.com

This event is funded by the Michigan Developmental Disabilities Council grant # 2011065 and the Delta County Regional Interagency Consumer Committee.